Personal data

Under the EU's General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR) personal data is defined as:

“any information relating to an identified or identifiable natural person ('data subject'); an identifiable natural person is one who can be identified, directly or indirectly, in particular by reference to an identifier such as a name, an identification number, location data, an online identifier or to one or more factors specific to the physical, physiological, genetic, mental, economic, cultural or social identity of that natural person”.

How we use your information

This privacy notice tells you how we, the Stamford Endowed Schools Sports Centre will collect and use your personal data for the services we provide.

Why does the Stamford Endowed Schools Sports Centre need to collect and store personal data?

In order for us to provide you with information, news and events for our members or hirers of the Schools and the SES facilities, we need to collect personal data for correspondence purposes and/or detailed service provision. In any event, we are committed to ensuring that the information we collect, and use is appropriate for this purpose, and does not constitute an invasion of your privacy. In terms of being contacted for marketing purposes the Stamford Endowed Schools Sports Centre will have contacted you for additional consent.

Will the Stamford Endowed Schools Sports Centre share my personal data with anyone else?

We may pass your personal data on to third-party service providers contracted to the Schools in the course of dealing with you. Any third parties that we may share your data with are obliged to keep your details securely, and to use them only to fulfil the service they provide you on our behalf. When they no longer need your data to fulfil this service, they will dispose of the details in line with the Schools procedures. If we wish to pass your sensitive personal data onto a third party we will only do so once we have obtained your consent, unless we are legally required to do otherwise.

How will The Sports Centre use the personal data it collects about me?

The Sports Centre will process (collect, store and use) the information you provide in a manner compatible with the EU's General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR) and the UK Data Protection Bill 2017. We will endeavor to keep your information accurate and up to date, and not keep it for longer than is necessary. The Sports Centre is required to retain information in accordance with the law, such as information needed for income tax and audit purposes. How long certain kinds of personal data should be kept may also be governed by specific business-sector requirements and agreed practices. Personal data may be held in addition to these periods depending on individual business needs.

Under what circumstances will the Stamford Endowed Schools Sports Centre contact me?

Our aim is not to be intrusive, and we undertake not to ask irrelevant or unnecessary questions. Moreover, the information you provide will be subject to rigorous measures and procedures to minimise the risk of unauthorised access or disclosure.

In this document the Stamford Endowed Schools will be abbreviated to the term 'the Schools' or 'the Sports Centre' and refers to Stamford Junior School (including the Nursery), Stamford High School, Stamford School, Stamford Endowed Enterprises, Stamford Endowed Schools Foundation and any legitimate activities that may take place away from the Schools sites.
