

Old Stamfordian Club

JUNE 2022

MESSAGE FROM THE COMMITTEE

Dear Old Stamfordian

It was fantastic to see so many faces join us for reunion, and we would like to say a huge thank you to those who attended. There was a good turn out for the lunchtime event and we wish to extend our gratitude to the catering team for an exceptional lunch.

The hog roast in the evening was a huge success, with around 250 Old Stamfordians from across the Schools gathering on Mainfield to enjoy the sunshine and the Andrew Carter touch rugby competition. Our Chairman, Cam Park, had the honour of presenting the winning prize to the team of OS 17. It is a tournament that is close to the hearts of many Old Stamfordians and we were thrilled to see high numbers of both players and spectators.

We hope you enjoy the photo gallery of the day and we look forward to welcoming you back to the Schools in the future.

REUNION 2022

It was fantastic to welcome over 200 Old Stamfordians back to the Schools on Saturday 11 June as we hosted, for the first time since 2019, our reunion. The timetable of the day included a Chapel service, lunch in the Oswald Elliot Hall and culminated in the Andrew Carter touch rugby tournament and a hog roast on Mainfield, held jointly with the Old Girls' Guild.

In a hotly contested rugby competition, a team of OS 17 ran out winners, and a terrific time seemed to be had by all.

GOLF RESULTS

OS Golf - Spring 2022

Old Pupils Salver at Luffenham Heath: Friday 22 April.

Only four schools entered this year's event. Stamford was represented by Nick Glover, Richard James, Martin Jaffrey, Mark Walmsley, Robin Woodall and Geoff Holyoake.

Stamford accumulated 75 points from their best two pairs and finished third, 4 points behind the winners, Old Loughburians.

54th Championship Meet at Luffenham Heath: Saturday 7 May.

A well-presented Luffenham Heath with the Hawthorn in full flower welcomed the OS Golfers. The fine condition of the course and weather augured well for good scoring. However, all the OS inexplicably struggled on the day.

Andrew Taylor, joint leader in the morning with Alistair Weir, held off a strong afternoon challenge from Neil Nottingham to win the Whitby Cup with 63 points.

Alistair Weir (34 points) retained the McKenzie Cup for the morning round and Neil Nottingham (34 points) won the Ferrier Cup in the afternoon.

John Cartwright, who was unable to play through injury, joined the evening diners for a well deserved 'fish and chip' supper at the nearby Coach House Inn.
