We are pleased to announce that access to the new Parent Portal is now available. This will allow you to monitor your child/children's progress, as well as update personal details, view your payment history and see the courses your child/children are booked in to. We politely ask that you complete the health questions section, you will find on some of the questions a red box will appear even if you have answered no to the question please just complete with N/A, this will then allow you to save the information.
